FOCUS: A ONE-YEAR JOURNEY THROUGH THE BIBLE

GROWING OUR LOVE FOR GOD THROUGH A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Session 2: An Invitation to Holiness February 14 - March 27

Session One was titled, "God's Plan for Creation," we talked about God's creation, which was good, The Fall, which was bad, the formation of Israel, and the nation escaping slavery and entering into the world to live as a blessing that points others to our Creator, God.

Now that we've discussed God's plan for creation, these next six weeks we'll focus on God's strategy to reach the world: becoming holy and living as a holy people. Holiness has always been God's strategy for his people. It's a concept that, by no accident, litters the pages of the Old Testament and New Testament. Session Two is titled, "An Invitation to Holiness."

Some questions related to holiness that we may encounter along the way:

What is the pathway to holiness? How can you become holy in the eyes of God? Is it prideful to think you're holier than others who are not in the church? How is holiness a "strategy" to reach people? What do the Tabernacle, Temple, and Jesus have to do with holiness? If I fall into sin do I lose my standing with God? Does God love me if I'm not "holy?" How does Jesus make me holy?
