WELCOME TO FAITH!

From Pastor Tom's Desk...

In his book, Vision and Character, Craig Dykstra writes:

If our problem is really sin—a fundamental breach in human existence—then repentance, not self-improvement, is the first requirement. This is the biblical view of the foundation of morality. The prophets, John the Baptist, Jesus, and Paul all beckoned their hearers to a new life by calling them first to give up the old in repentance... Repentance is the absolutely inescapable first step of the Christian moral life. Without repentance, the Christian moral life is impossible.

Isn't it interesting that we don't talk much about repentance anymore? When we do use the word "repentance," we tend to understand it as remorse. Remorse is feeling bad that you have done something wrong. It may be motivated by any of several things. Sorrow that you got caught, for example. Or, sadness that you hurt someone's feelings or let someone down. Or, regret that you complicated your life.

Repentance, on the other hand, is rooted in a deep sorrow that you have failed God. Yes, God Himself! It is a deep grief that you have been less than God intended, disobedient to His will, and unconcerned about His Kingdom. Repentance always begins with an awareness that we have let God down. David prayed in Psalm 51, "Against you, and you only, (O God,) I have sinned." Paul calls this awareness "godly sorrow" in 2 Corinthians 7. Godly sorrow is there contrasted with "worldly sorrow," which seems to be like the remorse I described above.

Spiritual transformation grows out of a sense of genuine repentance. Repentance motivates us to change—to conform our lives to God's will rather than fail Him again and again. Years ago I heard John Maxwell describe repentance this way: "Repentance is being sorry for your sin. How sorry? Sorry enough to quit!" Very little change takes place in our lives, as Dykstra said, without a genuine sense of repentance.

I believe Christians are predisposed to repentance. All of us sin from time to time, either by intention or ineptitude. When that happens, if we are walking in the Spirit, our response is one of the immediate repentance. When we are sold out to Jesus, we no longer want to disobey Him or hurt His cause. Sin produces an immediate regret that motivates us to seek forgiveness and empowerment for righteous living.

Thankfully, our repentance is always met with God's generous grace. He "forgives all our sins," as the Psalmist said in chapter 103. So don't be afraid to confess your sin to God in genuine repentance, and you'll receive the freedom that comes from being released from sin!

Grace and peace,

Pastor Tom

Retirement Celebration for Pastor Dave and Sharon...

Pastor Dave and Sharon have been a tremendous blessing to our church through their 13 years here at Faith Alliance. Dave began as our Youth Pastor, gradually assuming leadership of our Missions Ministries as well. In the summer of 2014, he transferred his youth ministry responsibilities to Pastor James, and he became our "part-time" missions pastor. Under his leadership, the passion and scope of our missions ministry has grown significantly.

Dave will complete his ministry here at the end of this Month. On Sunday, August 28, we will be recognizing Dave and Sharon in our worship services. Following each service, we will hold a reception in their honor in the Fellowship Hall. Please plan to be with us.

Church Picnic and Baptism Service...

Mark your calendar for Sunday, September 11th! That evening we will hold our annual picnic at the Lake Loramie beach shelter. Following our carry-in supper, we will celebrate baptisms in the lake. If you are interested in being baptized, please contact one of the pastors at your earliest convenience.

Community Picnic...

Once again the churches of New Bremen will be joining together to sponsor a picnic carry-in supper for the community. This year's event will be held at the Crown Pavilion on Sunday August 28, at 5:30 p.m. Those attending Faith Alliance are asked to bring a double portion of a salad for sharing. (Community guests will not be bringing food; the churches are providing this meal).

Following supper, AC Swing will wrap up the summer concert series. For their closing, a combined choir is being formed to sing a patriotic number. Rehearsals will be held on August 11 at St. Paul Church of Christ from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m., and at the Pavilion on August 25 from 8:30- 9:00 p.m. For more information, call Scott Kuenning at 419-305-1500.
