Welcome to Faith Alliance!

From Pastor Trent's desk...

Mark 10:15 - "Whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it."

I think it's fair to say that a young child receives the news of the kingdom of God very similarly to how they would receive candy from a shady looking stranger on Halloween. The child would have a smile on their face, they would extend their open hand, receive the gift, and want to consume it instantly. A child hasn't been around long enough to see the warning signs: 1. That the stranger looks "shady," 2. That some people can't be trusted (cont'd in #3), 3. especially on Halloween! 4. "it's too good to be true" means nothing to them, and the list goes on... A small child hasn't been burned enough times yet to stop and consider that something seems a bit off. If it was your child receiving the candy on Halloween you would probably take the candy away from them before they could consume it - you'd want to inspect it first, "just in case."

Jesus told adults to receive his kingdom like a child knowing that most adults have had enough hurtful life experiences, knowledge, and understanding that it's reasonable for us to doubt some proposals. Our sinful world programs us to be skeptical, we absorb skepticism into our DNA, and probably for good reason. The only reason this is the case is because some people are bad, their motives are impure. But Jesus comes saying, receive my gift like a child. Don't fear, don't worry, don't doubt it. It's a plea to our warped hearts and minds.

A parent is suspicious of a shady looking stranger because they don't know if the person should be trusted, their motives are unknown. It's the nature of the gift-giver that determines the attitude of the recipient. If your mom offered the same piece of candy to a child, you'd tell the child to eat up, because you know the gift-giver is good and you have had a lifetime to confirm it.

When has God not been good? Yes, he disciplines, he speaks what is true even when it hurts, but he also loves unconditionally, and he's faithful - just like a loving parent. I hope this Christmas you will have a season of receiving God's goodness like you're a little child. Receive it with a smile and joy in your heart, receive it without any fear, doubt, or worry. Our Gift-Giver is good, he loves you, he's proved it time and again. God has no plans to harm you, he can, and should be trusted. Enjoy the gift, celebrate it. To steal a line from a man who had his heart set on God, "Taste and see that the LORD is good." - David, Psalm 34.

Women's Luncheon...

All women are invited to a luncheon following the second service. All women will meet at Casa Lupita in New Bremen around noon. We hope to see you there!

Family Caroling Night...

All ages are invited to join Faith Alliance for a night of Christmas Caroling around the town. As we carol we will be inviting people to attend the Live Nativity the following nights. This will take place tonight (December 11). Starting at 5:00pm a potluck dinner will be served. If you plan to participate please bring something to share. Starting at 6:00pm we will head around town to sing Christmas Carols. If you're unable to join us for the potluck, but would still like to go caroling please meet at the church at 5:45pm.

All women are invited to attend. Come and be inspired!

Thank You...

Thank you to our church family for the many cards, kind words, flowers and prayers during the sickness and death of Mitch's mother. Your kindness was very appreciated and meant so much to all of us.

Mitch and Carrie Middendorf and family

Thank You...

Thank you to everyone for helping with the Sager Retirement Luncheon. Thanks to those who set up, cleaned up, tore down, ran errands, served drinks, cut cakes, and decorated. Your help was very much appreciated.

Thank You...

Thank you all so much for your condolences, sympathy cards and beautiful flowers received on the death of Rich's father. We appreciate it more than words can say. We are grateful we live and worship with such caring people.

Rich and Andrea Ball and family
